GLORIOUS REVOLUTION SEIZES POWER | LIQUID FANTASY INUNDATES THE CATWALK

What you expect, is wallpaper. What you get, is a story. The rebellious reputation of HOOKEDONWALLS® is only confirmed by their fifth and sixth collection: Liquid Fantasy and Glorious Revolution. Delicate-dark marginalia contrast with the bold metallic colours, fine skin patterns define themselves against a sensitive relief. Influence of the catwalks filters through to the last details, pastels and natural hues complete the omnipresent grey perfectly. Look, feel and experience the stories that HOOKEDONWALLS® committed to paper...

A sonnet of hues and textures. A tribute to patterns. A hymn on style. HOOKEDONWALLS® 'wallpaper is poetry which will not be compartmentalized. Interior or fashion? Artistic or photogenic? Two new wallpaper collections take up their position in the No Man's Land between Tradition and Art. Glorious Revolution just loves going against the Establishment. Liquid Fantasy floods the fashion scene and completely absorbs trendy elements. They both radiate HOOKEDONWALLS® ' obstinate message: that boundaries are there to be moved. Those who are prepared to listen to that story will never have ears for anything else.

THE END OF A CENTURY,
GLORIOUS AND DIVINE.
STAND UP FOR GREAT BEAUTY,
SPLENDID TURNAROUNDS.
CHANGING TIME AND POWER.
A WONDERFUL REVOLUTION.

GLORIOUS REVOLUTION

Every new era starts with the end of a glorious past. Dictatorial was the straitjacket of the Establishment. Divine is the power of revolutionaries. Behold the glory of those who drive a new path. Acknowledge the pride of those who dare to be different. Stately portraits solemnly behold what lies before them. A refreshing beauty is glistening at the horizon.... Hail to the glorious revolution.

Theatrical or majestic?

Three Glorious Revolution patterns breathe fame and glory. Kaleidoscope Lace creates as delicate as dramatic an impression. The refined drawing of the lace and the heavy colours make a noble set for the main actors. Barb Wire depicts a chain of sharp edges reminiscent of every revolution in the minds of its rebels. Rough Scales crawls under your skin with its rough relief and leathery texture. The proud rebel is victorious in aristocratic still lifes.

As main colours for this Glorious Revolution collection midnight blue, moss green, amber red, titanium, bronze in combination with black were opted for. For neutral hues mastic, white, mocha and yellow-beige were chosen.

THE LIQUID MUSIC OF A VOICE.
SILENCE CAPTURED BY WATER.
FLOATING ON A NEVER ENDING DREAM.
LET THE FANTASY OCCUR.

LIQUID FANTASY

In an underwaterworld, the silence beckons. Softly the dream seduces the reality. Enchanted by a luminous harmony, clean contours fade. Overwhelmed by a ,“neverending desire”, the current takes you to unknown heights and unexpected beauty. Airily you float along a symphony of sweet sounds. In a breathtaking scenery natural colours melt into one another. You are riding high on a wave of fantasy ...

Against the current

Connected by a universal grey which is soft and natural, the four Liquid Fantasy-patterns each flow in their own direction. Urban Aquarel reflects soft water colour hues and mirrors the light. Liquid Leaf draws its inspiration from nature and with flowing, undulating lines indicates a large leaf pattern. Dark colours ensure a dramatic touch in the series. The complicated check pattern of Weathered Check fiercely resists plain simplicity. Everybody fancies the fashionable Burlington-check. Vertical Brush comes straight to the point and sticks to being modern and linear. On sunken catwalks fantasy shows its true colour: natural. Pure beauty abounds ...

The Liquid Fantasy collection is available in the main colours like minty green, rusty orange, amber red, sepia brown, mocha in combination with neutral grey and in the neutral hues ivory white, beige and linen.
